

Anywhere water can collect is a potential breeding ground for mosquitoes. Old tires, cans and other trash should be properly disposed. Containers such as buckets and flower pots should be drained. Holes in trees should be drained or sealed with mortar. Where can mosquitoes breed in your yard?